

Writing for Professionals:

Choosing the Best Style for your Content, Context and Audience

Elizabeth McGregor

Writer/Editor/Consultant

What resources are available to me?

How do I connect with my readers?

Where do I start?

Grammar

STYLE

CONSISTENCY

CONTEXT

STRUCTURE

Formality

Interpretation

Usage

How is our language changing?

New words are being added to our language:

Blog

E-zine

Ringtone

Voicemail

Old words have new meaning:

Tweet

Friend

Avatar

Sick

And individual words are changing:

Web site

website

Grammar vs. Style

Grammar

The “mechanics” of writing

Includes punctuation, spelling, subject-verb agreement, tense, etc.

Less subjective

Can be taught

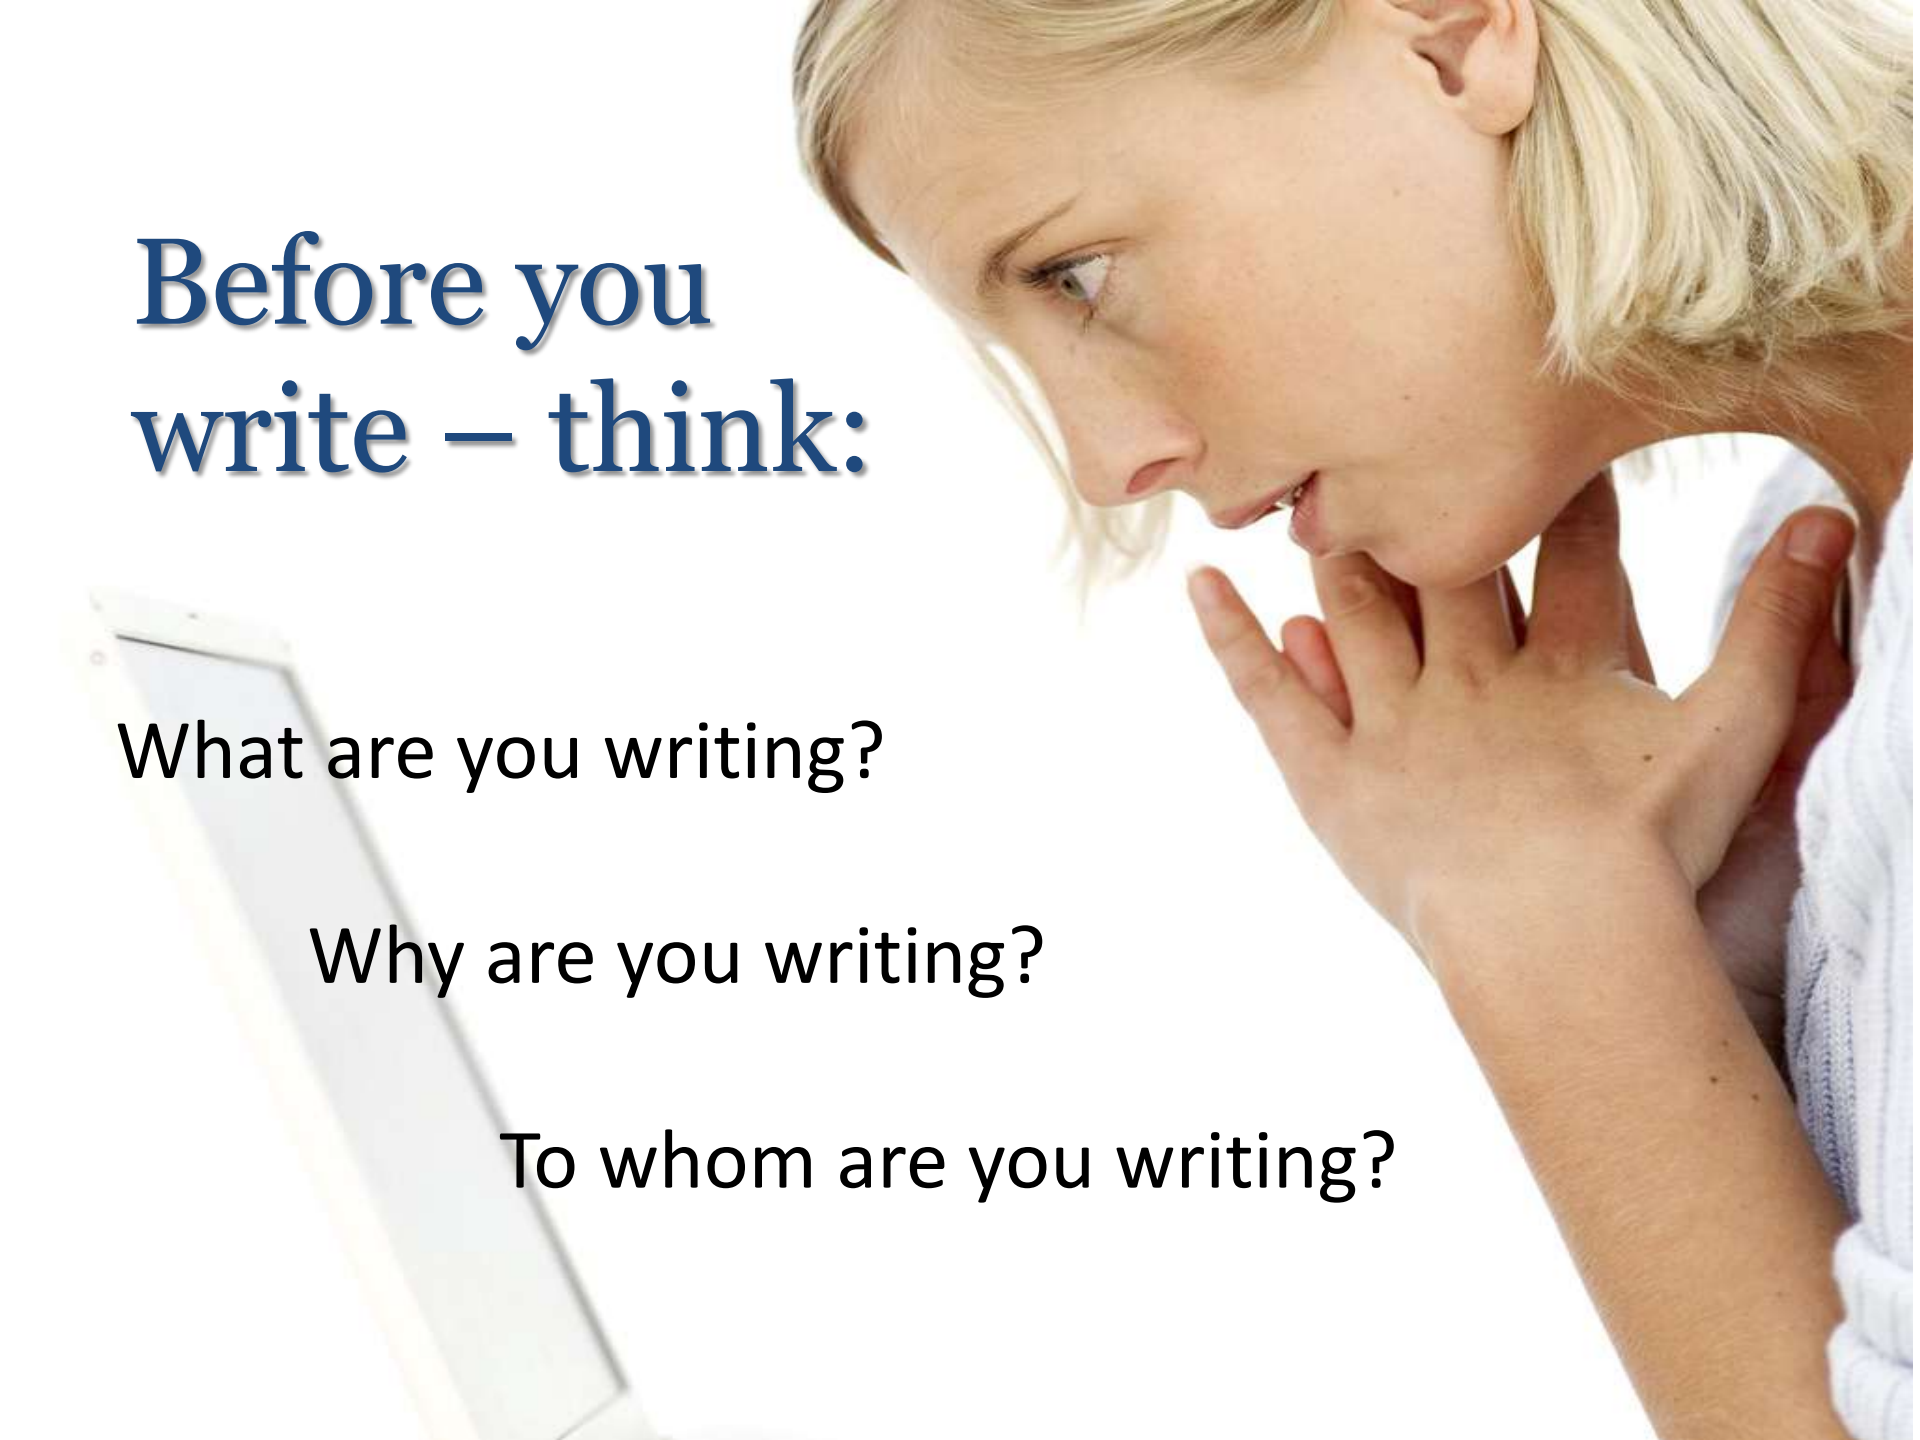

Style

The “voice” of writing

Includes such things as voice, formality, word choice, etc.

More subjective

More individual interpretation

Before you write – think:

What are you writing?

Why are you writing?

To whom are you writing?

“How do I connect with my readers?”

What Are You Writing?

“I have to write a newsletter...”

- I'm writing my company's monthly e-newsletter.
- I want to inform my clients of current trends and changes in the business, and remind them of upcoming events. This will reinforce my brand in their minds and position me as an expert in my field.
- The newsletter will go out to existing clients who are familiar with my business, as well as potential clients who may not be.

Why Are You Writing?

To educate?

To entertain?

To persuade?

For whom are you writing?

Create a profile of your audience:

- What do they do?
- How old are they? Gender?
- Where do they live?
- How familiar are they with my business? My topic?

Why are they reading?

- Are they reading for pleasure? For information?
- What are they expecting to learn?
- How will they use this information? Will they reuse or “repost” it?
- Are they reading because they want to or because they have to?

What Makes Writing Formal or Casual?

Formal or Informal?

- The subject
- The audience
- The platform
- Geography
- Writing styles
 - Narrative
 - Passive/active voice
 - Contractions
 - Jargon/slang/buzz-words
 - Abbreviations
 - Sentence length

The Narrative Point of View

Narrative	Point of View	Genre Examples
First Person	I, we	Blogs, correspondence, creative
Second Person	You	Correspondence, blogs, websites, procedural, mar- com
Third Person	Them, him/her	Business formal, academic, journalism, mar-com

Active vs. Passive Voice:

Active voice puts the sentence in logical order:

Elizabeth ate the last cookie.

Subject

Verb

Object

In the passive voice, the object of the action becomes the subject of the sentence.

“The last cookie was eaten by Elizabeth.”

What Else Affects the Level of Formality?

- Contractions
 - Can't, doesn't, you're, it's, won't, etc.
- Jargon
 - Industry-specific terms
- Abbreviations
 - Ave., Feb., info.
- Gender-specific terms
 - Waitress, box-boy, mailman
- Text-talk
 - Pls, LOL, BRB, C U L8R
- Sentence length

Good writing is:

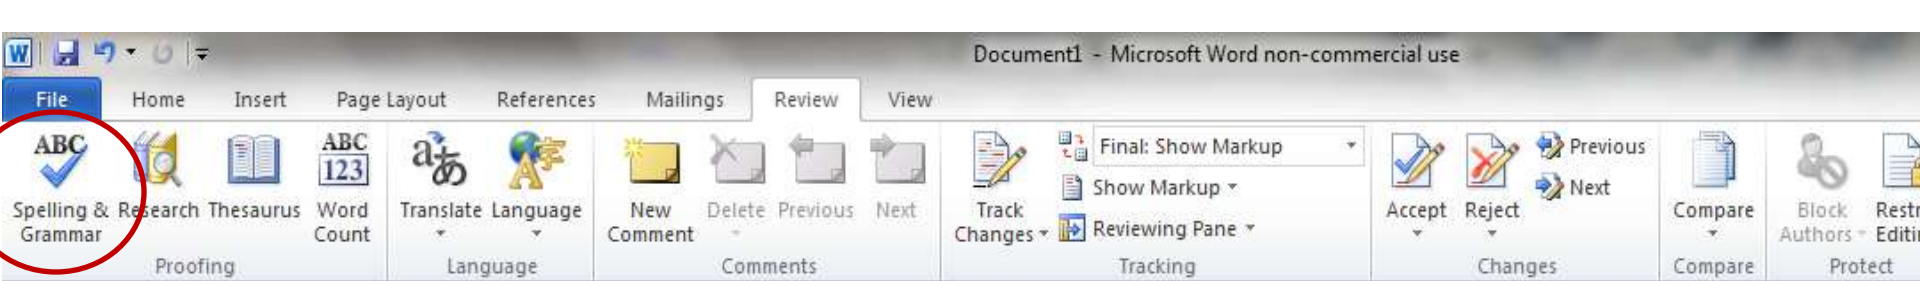

- Correct
- Concise
- Consistent

“Think like a wise man, but communicate in the language of the people.” –

William Butler Yeats|

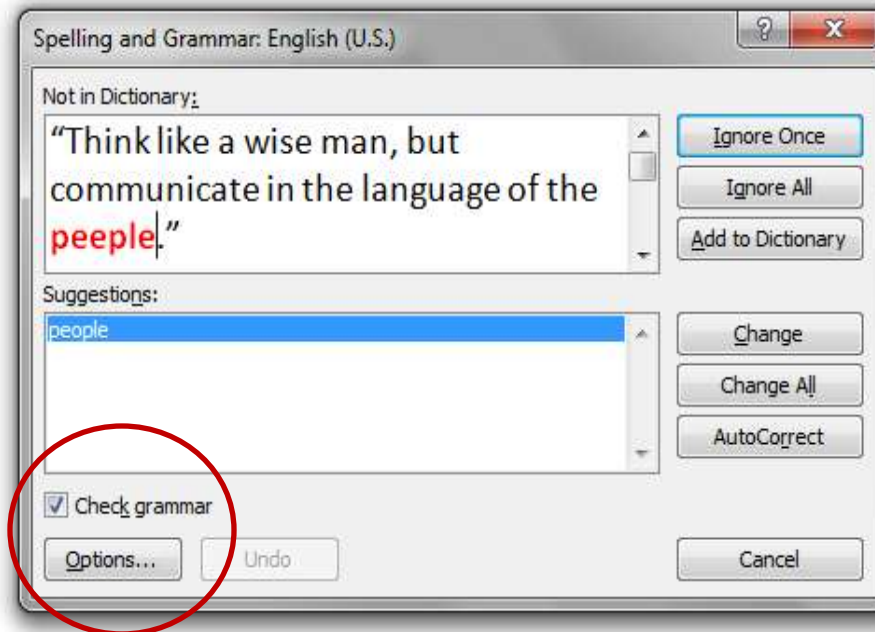

“Think like a wise man, but communicate in the language of the people.” -

William Butler Yeats

“Think like a wise man, but communicate in the language of the people.”

William Butler Yeats

Word Options

General

Display

Proofing

Save

Language

Advanced

Customize Ribbon

Quick Access Toolbar

Add-Ins

Trust Center

Change how Word corrects and formats your text.

AutoCorrect options

Change how Word corrects and formats text as you type: AutoCorrect Options...

When correcting spelling in Microsoft Office programs

- Ignore words in UPPERCASE
- Ignore words that contain numbers
- Ignore Internet and file addresses
- Flag repeated words
- Enforce accented uppercase in French
- Suggest from main dictionary only

Custom Dictionaries...French modes: Traditional and new spellings ▼Spanish modes: Tuteo verb forms only ▼

When correcting spelling and grammar in Word

- Check spelling as you type
- Use contextual spelling
- Mark grammar errors as you type
- Check grammar with spelling
- Show reading statistics

Writing Style: Grammar & Style ▼ Settings...Recheck Document

Exceptions for: Document1 ▼

- Hide spelling errors in this document only
- Hide grammar errors in this document only

OK

Cancel

General

Display

Proofing

Save

Language

Advanced

Customize Ribbon

Quick Access Toolbar

Add-Ins

Trust Center

  Change how Word corrects and formats your text.

AutoCorrect options

Change how Word corrects and formats text as you type:

When correcting spelling in Microsoft Office programs

- Ignore words in UPPERCASE
- Ignore words that contain numbers
- Ignore Internet and file addresses
- Flag repeated words
- Enforce accented uppercase in French
- Suggest from main dictionary only

French modes: ▼Spanish modes: ▼

When correcting spelling and grammar in Word

- Check spelling as you type
- Use contextual spelling
- Mark grammar errors as you type
- Check grammar with spelling
- Show readability statistics

Writing Style: ▼ Exceptions for: ▼

- Hide spelling errors in this document only
- Hide grammar errors in this document only

Grammar Settings

? X

Writing style:

 ▼Grammar and style options:Require

- Comma required before last list item: ▼
- Punctuation required with quotes: ▼
- Spaces required between sentences: ▼

Grammar:

- Capitalization
- Fragments and Run-ons
- Misused words
- Negation
- Noun phrases
- Possessives and plurals
- Punctuation
- Questions

OK

Cancel

Word Options

General

Display

Proofing

Save

Language

Advanced

Customize Ribbon

Quick Access Toolbar

Add-Ins

Trust Center

 Change how Word corrects and formats your text.

AutoCorrect options

Change how Word corrects and formats text as you type:

When correcting spelling in Microsoft Office programs

- Ignore words in UPPERCASE
- Ignore words that contain numbers
- Ignore Internet and file addresses
- Flag repeated words
- Enforce accented uppercase in French
- Suggest from main dictionary only

French modes: ▼

Spanish modes: ▼

When correcting spelling and grammar in Word

- Check spelling as you type
- Use contextual spelling
- Mark grammar errors as you type
- Check grammar with spelling
- Show readability statistics

Writing Style: ▼

Exceptions for: ▼

- Hide spelling errors in this document only
- Hide grammar errors in this document only

Grammar Settings

Writing style:

▼

Grammar and style options:

Style:

- Clichés, Colloquialisms, and Jargon
- Contractions
- Fragment - stylistic suggestions
- Gender-specific words
- Hyphenated and compound words
- Misused words - stylistic suggestions
- Numbers
- Passive sentences
- Possessives and plurals - stylistic suggestions
- Punctuation - stylistic suggestions
- Relative clauses - stylistic suggestions
- Sentence length (more than sixty words)
- Sentence structure

Good writing is concise:

“It is the difference between hitting with a pillow and hitting with a baseball bat. The pillow, soft, fluffy and unshaped. The baseball bat, hard and compact and well defined.”

- William Brohaugh

Cut out clichés and redundancies

- ❖ Complete and total
- ❖ Past experience
- ❖ Added bonus
- ❖ And also
- ❖ Each and every
- ❖ Free gift
- ❖ Join together
- ❖ Repeat again
- ❖ Over exaggerate
- ❖ New breakthrough
- ❖ Advance planning
- ❖ Basic fundamentals
- ❖ Surrounded on all sides
- ❖ The reason why is because
- ❖ End result

Commonly overused modifiers:

- Very
- Really
- Pretty
- So
- A little
- Totally
- Much

Good Writing is Consistent

Look for:

- Voice (conversational, formal)
- Tense (past, present, future)
- Person (first, second, or third person)
- Abbreviations and acronyms
- Structure

Parallel Construction

You should:

- You should make your bullet points parallel
- keep your abbreviations consistent
- To avoid making a mistake.
- Do you think punctuation matters
- Only when writing an e-mail

Project: TBC Meeting

Date: Monday, Feb 27

AB	CD	EF	GH
IJ	KL	MN MSTP = Microsoft Manual of Style for Technical Publications	OP
QR	ST TBC = Technical and Business Communica- tors	UV	WX
YZ	MISC. 25-35 people

Structured Authoring

“Information Mapping® helps authors to break complex information into its most basic elements and then present those elements optimally for readers.” - Information Mapping Web site

When is structured authoring helpful? If the information is:

- Highly technical
- Complex and difficult to navigate
- Disorganized

San Luis Obispo Society for Technical Communication
P. O. Box 2533 • Atascadero, California 93423 • www.slostc.org • info@slostc.org

"BEFORE"

TO: All San Luis Obispo STC Constituents
DATE: Feb. 26, 2007
REF: Memo 2007-001
SUBJECT: Our New Chapter Theme
FROM: Adele Sommers

This memo announces the latest development in our San Luis Obispo STC strategic planning process — the adoption of a chapter theme.

Our strategic planning process challenged us to think in terms of what we do best, and how to apply that expertise to serve our constituency, drive chapter activities, and ensure future adaptability. We therefore asked ourselves, "What can we be the best in the world (or, at minimum, in the community) at doing? What domain can we champion, or 'own,' that is unique and consistent with our overarching skill set?"

Our new chapter theme was approved at the February 6, 2007 San Luis Obispo STC board meeting, and is effective immediately. This new theme derives from our use of structured information design principles. Structured information design — which is a fundamental aspect of technical communication — strives to help people successfully understand, take the appropriate action, and achieve results. Therefore, the theme is "Action through Understanding." This entails creating meaningful messages; applying principles, processes, techniques to present them; and attaining the desired outcome in terms of human performance. Effective communication in general enables consumers to comprehend information accurately. Technical communication further champions this objective by facilitating action through understanding.

One major benefit of having a chapter theme is its ability to create instant, universal recognition. Other benefits include the ability to maintain continuity and focus for our chapter activities, provide flexibility and adaptability to a variety of topics, and design many types of chapter promotions.

We encourage wide participation in our planning activities, and if you are interested in taking part, please contact Adele Sommers at pres@slostc.org.

Example of an Unstructured Memo

San Luis Obispo Society for Technical Communication
P. O. Box 2533 • Atascadero, California 93423 • www.slostc.org • info@slostc.org

"AFTER"

TO: All San Luis Obispo STC Constituents
DATE: Feb. 26, 2007
REF: Memo 2007-001
SUBJECT: Our New Chapter Theme
FROM: Adele Sommers

Overview: This memo announces the latest development in our San Luis Obispo STC strategic planning process — the adoption of a chapter theme.

Our strategic planning process challenged us to think in terms of what we do best, and how to apply that expertise to serve our constituency, drive our chapter activities, and ensure future adaptability. We therefore asked ourselves, "What can we be the very best in the world (or, at minimum, in the community) at doing? What domain can we champion, or 'own,' that is unique and consistent with our overarching skill set?"

Proposed theme: "Action through Understanding" has become our new chapter theme, which derives from our use of structured information design principles.

Rationale: Structured information design — which is a fundamental aspect of technical communication — strives to help people successfully understand, take the appropriate action, and achieve results. It entails:

- Creating meaningful messages
- Applying principles, processes, and techniques to present them, and
- Attaining the desired outcome in terms of human accomplishment

Effective communication in general enables consumers to comprehend information accurately. Technical communication further champions this objective by facilitating action through understanding.

Effective date: The new chapter theme was approved at the February 6, 2007 San Luis Obispo STC board meeting, and is effective immediately.

Anticipated benefits: The benefits of having a chapter theme include its ability to:

- Create instant, universal recognition
- Maintain continuity and focus for our chapter activities
- Provide flexibility and adaptability to a variety of topics
- Lend itself to many types of chapter promotions

What you can do: We encourage wide participation in our planning activities, and if you are interested in taking part, please contact Adele Sommers at pres@slostc.org.

Example of a Structured Memo

Stylebooks: The Basic Three

- The Chicago Manual of Style (16th Edition)
- The Associated Press Stylebook 2011
- Microsoft Manual of Style for Technical Publications (4th Edition)

Resource	Genre	Description	Web site	Price
Chicago Manual of Style (16th Edition)	Publishing, editorial	“Editorial style and publishing practices in the digital age.”	www.chicagomanualofstyle.org	$35.00/year
Associated Press Stylebook	Journalism	Guide to style, usage and punctuation with a searchable database and “Ask the Editor” feature.	www.apstylebook.com	$25.00/year
Yahoo! Style Guide	Writing for the Web	“Writing, editing and creating content for the digital world.”	www.styleguide.yahoo.com	Free
Microsoft Manual of Style for Technical Publications	Technical	Comprehensive tool for technical writers. (PDF)	www.microsoft.com/learning/en/us/Book.aspx?ID=15053	$29.99
Bartleby’s	General (Includes Strunk’s Elements of Style)	“...Internet publisher of literature, reference and verse ... unlimited access to books and information on the Web...”	www.bartelby.com	Free
The Purdue Online Writing Lab (OWL)	General	Searchable database with resources for writing, editing, etc. Includes APA and MLA style guides.	owl.english.purdue.edu	Free
The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation	Legal	“The definitive style guide for legal citation in the United States.”	www.legalbluebook.com	$32.00/year
AMA Manual of Style	Medical	“A guide for authors and editors.”	www.amamanualofstyle.com	$49.95/year $9.95/month

“Easy reading is damn hard writing.”

~ Nathaniel Hawthorne

